Shik O Pik Company Products

Since office furniture is one of the most important equipment in an office suite, a short and useful biography is given about the characteristics of office furniture.

Different types of office desks :

1. Manager desk

These desks are available in classic and modern types. manager desk is always prominent and inevitably seen by audience at least for seconds.

This type of desk can be considered as one of the most important elements of high level commercial contracts. These desks are made of various types of resistance wood such as walnut and beech.

Modern manager desks look beautiful and efficient simultaneously. There is a variety of designs and materials used to make these desks. The materials include MDF, glass or the combination of both. Since MDF desks are made of fiberboard, they are lightweight and suitable to carry and move.

The common shapes are rectangular and L-shape.

Shik o Pik company, considering all mentioned details, is providing successful managers with high quality manager desks.

2. Staff desk

Every set, no matter how small, needs a number of high quality staff desks.

Since Staff and employees spend lots of their time in their workplace, comfortable and facilitated desks are required. This vital point has been considered by Shik O Pik company precise designers to supply employees with stylish and comfortable employee desks.

MDF staff desks in rectangular and L shapes are the most popular design in office suites.

3. Conference Table

Every office, apart from its size and the number of staff, needs a conference table to hold the meetings.

Conference tables are made from metal, glass and MDF.

Types of office chairs

It's been about 20 years that reputable organisations and chair brands have been designing and manufacturing such products using scientific methods.

Following ergonomic standards in chair production is an important factor as long as office people spend too much time in their chairs. On the whole, the chairs vary in structure and infrastructure due to their types such as manager, staff and conference chairs.

1. Manager Chair

A manager office chair should be adjustable at the back and the back of chair is flexible. The seat is designed in a way that doesn't restrict blood circulation in the legs. Height adjustment is another feature of manager chairs.

The other benefit is using anti sweat leathers that prevents bodies to sweat and smell which is a vital factor for management.

In general, manager chair should be exclusive, ergonomic and a suitable support for spine. The manager chairs offered by Shik O Pik company are beautiful, efficient and elegant for successful managers.

2- Staff chair

Working in an office involves spending a lot of time sitting in a chair. Therefore, using an ergonomic chair which is compatible with the spine structure will greatly reduce your daily stress.

In addition, an ergonomic chair reduces your back and neck pain resulted from long sitting hours, by maintaining natural curves of your spine.

Staff chairs provided by Shik o Pik company are completely ergonomic and standard considering all the above.

3- Conference chair

These types of chairs, which are used in conference rooms, are functional and comfortable for conference participants.

Arms and legs of these chairs are usually fixed and made of chrome. Shik o Pik company has made its customers satisfied by offering a variety of conference chair designs.

Office sofas

Office sofas are recognised as an integral part of any workplace in offices and companies.

Office sofas can determine the identity of workplace at first glance. Therefore, a proper choice of them, can make the best impression of workplace on clients. Shik O Pik company experts and designers have considered this essential factor precisely. Consequently, this company has always been pioneer in this industry by offering various, high quality and totally beautiful sofas.

These sofas are available in classic and modern designs. Proper design of this furniture can bring comfort to workplace for staffs and clients. Mostly, the upholstery of these sofas are made of natural and artificial leathers and different types of fabrics.

Credenza

Credenza is one of the office furniture parts which usually consists of cabinets and drawers suitable for documents storage. It is placed next to manager desk and is compatible with desk materials.
